What is a 24-Hour PlayFest?

Playwrights were given a San Antonio-related phrase, a prop and a non-specific cast list (they were told gender and age range only) at 8 pm last night. This morning at 8am, completed 10-minute scripts reflecting those selections were handed over to the Directors. The casts have been rehearsing all day. Now, twenty-four hours later, the curtain rises on the fruits of their labor.
